KANT

- Friendships are not found in heaven, for heaven is the ultimate in moral perfection, and that is universal; friendship, however, is a special bond between particular persons; in this world only, therefore, it is a recourse for opening one's mind to the other and communing with him.

Immanuel Kant, « Von der Freundschaft », Vorlesungen 4.1, Ak. 27.1, p. 428. pp. 422-424. On Friendship. veure també « On Enmity » (« Von der Feindschaft »), Ak. 27.1, pp. 431-432]

“Humanitat significa, d’una banda, el sentiment universal de participació en alguna cosa i, d’una altra banda, la facultat de poder comunicar-se de manera íntima i universal” (KU, § 60)

"every human being is an artist, a freedom
being, called to participate in transforming
and reshaping the conditions,
thinking & structures
that shape and inform our lives."
